HAPPY HOLLOW, PHILADELPHIA'S 114-YEAR-OLD RECREATION CENTER, GETS AN $8.6 MILLION RENOVATION

By Staff

Germantown just got a major win, and it's a long time coming. Mayor Cherelle L. Parker, Councilmember Cindy Bass, and a lineup of state and city leaders gathered to break ground on an $8.6 million renovation of Happy Hollow Playground — the oldest recreation center in Philadelphia and a place woven into the history of Germantown families for over a century.

Happy Hollow isn't just another rec center. Built in 1911 and gifted to the City by banker E.W. Clark, the site was created with intention: a safe, joyful space for children in a natural hollow surrounded by tall bluffs. Clark's wife named it "Happy Hollow" to reflect both its geography and the happiness it was designed to bring. More than 100 years later, that vision still lives in the memories of generations who learned, played, boxed, studied, and grew up inside those walls. Now, Happy Hollow is receiving the largest investment in its history.

The renovation includes the first full roof replacement ever, brand-new playground and sprayground areas, ADA-accessible restrooms and ramps, upgraded lighting and security cameras, a completely refinished basketball court, and a full overhaul of the HVAC, plumbing, and electrical systems. Inside, the computer lab, boxing room, kitchenette, storage areas, and multipurpose rooms are all being rebuilt to modern standards.

One of the most transformative additions is the creation of a high-speed digital access hub, funded by an $830,000 grant from the Pennsylvania Broadband Development Authority. This upgrade will bring a state-of-the-art computer lab, a gaming and esports room, and reliable free Wi-Fi to 20,000 residents — a resource that will help bridge the digital divide for families across North and Northwest Philadelphia.

This project is the result of real partnership. Funding comes through the City's Rebuild initiative — powered in part by the beverage tax and a historic $100 million gift from the William Penn Foundation — along with more than $2 million in state and federal grants championed by lawmakers like Rep. Darisha Parker and Sen. Sharif Street. Their work, paired with the City's Capital Program Office, made this long-overdue restoration possible.

Happy Hollow has always been more than a building. It has been a lifeline — offering programs from cooking to boxing, art to gardening, and countless safe spaces for kids to discover who they are. As Commissioner Susan Slawson put it, this is a place that has changed lives. This renovation ensures it will continue to serve, uplift, and inspire Germantown families for generations to come. Germantown fought for this investment, and now it's becoming reality.

When the work is done, Happy Hollow will stand as a model of what true neighborhood investment looks like — honoring a rich legacy while preparing for the next century. This moment is bigger than construction; it's a promise kept. And for a 114-year-old rec center, it's a brand-new beginning.

RUE LANDAU FINALLY MOVES TO FIX PHILLY'S BROKEN SIDEWALK CAFÉ PROCESS — AND IT'S ABOUT TIME

By Staff

Philadelphia is still buzzing after three of our restaurants earned Michelin stars — something folks in this city have been waiting on for years. We've always known Philly had world-class food, but now the world officially knows too. With that spotlight finally shining on us, it makes sense that Councilmember Rue Landau is stepping up with legislation that actually matches the moment. Because let's be real: for a city that brags about its food scene, our outdoor dining rules have been stuck in the Stone Age. Right now, if a restaurant in Philadelphia wants to put out a few tables and chairs — literally, just a couple of seats on the sidewalk — they can wait 12 to 18 months for approval. That's not a typo. That's not exaggeration. That's reality. And it's been killing small businesses on our neighborhood corridors for years. Meanwhile, cities we're trying to compete with — New York, D.C., Boston, even smaller markets — approve sidewalk café licenses in weeks, not years. They understand that outdoor dining isn't some luxury. It's economic vibrancy. It's neighborhood life. It's part of the culture. Philly has been late to the party, and the only thing standing in the way has been our own bureaucracy.

Landau's bill finally cuts through that mess.

Her legislation expands the areas of the city where sidewalk cafés can open by-right, which is government-speak for:

You don't need a political blessing just to run your business.

That's huge. It eliminates the old system where restaurants had to wait for a district council ordinance before even starting the permit process. Anyone who runs a business in Philly knows that once you add layers of politics, hearings, and approvals, the timeline becomes unpredictable — and expensive.

Landau spent months meeting with restaurateurs, small business owners, and councilmembers across Philadelphia. Everywhere she went, she heard the same thing: Outdoor dining shouldn't be this hard.

And with 2026 coming — World Cup games, the MLB All-Star Game, PA250, and millions of visitors expected — the timing couldn't be more urgent. Philly needs to look and operate like the world-class city we keep saying we are.

The bill already has wide support and is heading to the Streets Committee for a hearing. But the push behind it is even bigger than City Hall. Tourism and business leaders are rallying behind the proposal because they see the bigger picture.

Ben Fileccia from the Pennsylvania Restaurant & Lodging Association called the bill “smart and forward-thinking,” pointing out that outdoor dining has permanently reshaped how cities attract customers and showcase neighborhoods. He's right — post-pandemic, people expect outdoor spaces, and restaurants need them to compete.

Tourism officials echo that. The Philadelphia Convention and Visitors Bureau and Visit Philadelphia both point out that vibrant sidewalks and lively blocks are part of the visitor experience now. When people travel, they want to walk through neighborhoods that feel alive — not streets where the only thing moving is the parking enforcement truck.

The Chamber of Commerce also praised the bill for bringing predictability to a system that has been anything but predictable.

But here's the part folks need to hear:

This isn't just about Center City restaurants with fancy awnings. This is about Germantown, Mt. Airy, West Oak Lane, North Philly, West Philly, South Philly — everywhere local businesses are keeping neighborhoods alive without the benefit of deep pockets.

When we make it easier for small restaurants to put out tables, we help stabilize corridors, bring foot traffic back, create safer blocks, and give families more places to gather. Outdoor dining has always been bigger than food. It's community. Rue Landau's bill won't solve everything. But for once, Philly is moving in the right direction — cutting red tape instead of tying more of it around the necks of small businesses.

We'll see who stands with progress when it comes time to vote.

PHILADELPHIA COUNTY MORTGAGE FORECLOSURE CONDITIONS OF SALE

2. YOU MUST BE EIGHTEEN (18) YEARS OF AGE OR OLDER TO BID.

3. All bidders must complete the Bid4Assets online registration process to participate in the auction ("Auction"). All bidders must submit a Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) deposit ("Deposit") plus a Thirty-Five Dollars ($35.00) non-refundable processing fee to Bid4Assets before the start of the Auction. Such single Deposit shall be associated with the Auction held as of this date ("Auction Date") and shall allow a bidder to bid on all of the properties that are listed on the Auction Date. The Deposit will be applied to the 10% down payment required for all purchased properties. If the Deposit exceeds the 10% down payment required for all purchased properties, the excess will be applied towards the total balance due. If the 10% down payment required for all purchased properties is greater than the $10,000.00 Deposit, the balance due to reach the 10% down payment amount is due by 5:00PM on the next business day after the auction date.

4. All properties are sold "AS IS" with NO expressed or implied warranties or guarantees whatsoever. The Sheriff and Bid4Assets shall not be liable as a result of any cause whatsoever for any loss or damage to the properties sold. In anticipation of participating in the Auction and purchasing a property, the bidder assumes all responsibility for due diligence. It is the responsibility of the bidder to investigate any and all liens, encumbrances and/or mortgages held against the property which may not be satisfied by the post-sale Schedule of Proposed Distribution under Pa. R.C.P. 3136 ("Schedule of Proposed Distribution").

5. The plaintiff's attorney shall submit the plaintiff's upset price ("Upset Price") to Bid4Assets, via the attorney online portal, at least one (1) hour prior to the start of the Auction. The Upset Price is the least amount the plaintiff will accept for a property. The Sheriff's costs will be added to the Upset Price to determine the reserve price for the auction. The reserve price is the minimum dollar amount the Sheriff will accept for the sale to go to a third-party bidder. Bidders will not know what the reserve price is, but they will see when the reserve price has been met.

6. The sale of the property will not be stopped unless The Sheriff's Office is contacted by the Attorney on the Writ, by Court Order or at the discretion of the Sheriff.

7. If the reserve price is met, the highest bidder shall be the purchaser. By close of business the next business day after the auction, the purchaser is responsible for 10% of the purchase price for each property purchased plus a buyer's premium of 1.5% of the total purchase price of each property purchased. The purchaser shall pay the balance of 90% of the purchase price for each property purchased plus a $35 processing fee by 5:00PM EST on the fifteenth (15th) calendar day following the Auction Date unless that day falls on a holiday or weekend day, then the balance is due on the next business day by 5:00PM EST. Payments are due as stated above, NO EXTENSIONS AND NO EXCEPTIONS.

8. Failure to comply with the Conditions of Sale including, but not limited to, the failure to pay the remaining balance by any due date (the 10% down payment due date is the day following the auction; the 90% balance due date is 15 days after the auction date) and complying with all post-sale instructions required by the Sheriff and Bid4Assets, shall result in a default ("Default") and the down payment shall be forfeited by the bidder.

9. If a bidder wins multiple properties and does not comply with the conditions of sale for each property he is deemed in Default and all of the consequences of a Default will apply.

SHERIFF'S SALE

10. The highest bidder shall be responsible for any and all post sale costs that are imposed by law, which are incurred by the Sheriff. Please be advised that the Realty Transfer Taxes have been calculated and included in the bid amounts.

11. On any auction that results in a third-party sale, the bidder who was directly outbid by the highest bidder will be given the option to register as a second bidder. If the second bidder accepts this option, he/she agrees to purchase the property for the same price as the highest bidder. The second bidder shall deposit 10% of the purchase price by 5:00PM EST on the first (1st) business day following the auction date. On that date the second bidder will be apprised of the status of the winning bidder's deposit, and shall be told his/her 10% will be kept on deposit. The second bidder shall also be told he/she is liable for the 90% balance fifteen (15) calendar days from this date, if the highest bidder does not comply. If the highest bidder did not complete the sale, second bidder will have five (5) calendar days to complete the sale. If that 5th day falls on a holiday or weekend day, then the balance is due on the next business day by 5:00PM EST. If the second bidder is non-compliant he/she will forfeit his/her deposit to Sheriff. If the highest bidder completes the transaction, the second bidder will get his/her deposit refunded within 10 business days.

12. The Sheriff's Office, in its sole discretion, may cancel the sale after the auction closes for any reason.

13. The Plaintiff shall submit any pre-sale postponements or stays to the Philadelphia Sheriff's Office prior to 3:00PM the day before the auction.

14. The Plaintiff's attorney shall enter any auction day postponements or stays on his/her Bid4Assets attorney portal. This includes any postponement or stay that was not submitted to the Philadelphia Sheriff's Office prior to the 3:00PM deadline the day before and any postponement or stay that occurs during the auction.

15. The Plaintiff, pursuant to Court Order, may cancel the sale after the Auction closes for any reason.

16. All bidding after the minimum bid, as described in Paragraph 4, shall be in increments of at least One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00).

17. If the Sheriff's grantee is to be anyone other than the purchaser registered with Bid4Assets, a notarized written assignment of bid must be filed with the Sheriff's Office of Philadelphia.

18. The Sheriff will not acknowledge a deed poll to any individual or entity using an unregistered fictitious name and may, at the discretion of the Sheriff, require proof of identity of the purchaser or the registration of fictitious names. The bid of an unregistered fictitious name shall be forfeited as if the bidder failed to meet the terms of sale.

19. The Sheriff reserves the right to refuse purchase from bidders who have failed to enter deposits, failed to make settlement or for any other reason at Sheriff's sole discretion and further reserves the right to deny access to future sales for a period of time as determined by Sheriff.

20. The Sheriff will file in the Prothonotary's office a Schedule of Distribution Thirty (30) Days from the date of sale of Real Estate. Distribution will be made in accordance with the Schedule unless exceptions are filed thereto within Ten (10) days thereafter. Any balance exceeding the payouts per the Schedule of Distribution and Exceptions thereto, shall be paid to the homeowner at the time of sale.

21. When the Sheriff's Deed Poll is issued to the winning bidder, he/she becomes the official new owner of the property. If the property is occupied, the new owner must start a judicial procedure for ejection to have the occupant removed.

22. All auctions are conducted pursuant to Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure and the local rules of the City and County of Philadelphia.

WARNING: All Sheriff's Sales are strictly monitored for any and all suspicious and fraudulent activity (including but not limited to Computer, Identity, Bank, Wire, etc.). If the Sheriff's office detects any suspicious and/or fraudulent activity during any sale, at the Sheriff's discretion, the bidder's account shall be suspended for whatever action deemed appropriate. Furthermore, those individuals face both criminal and civil liability and will be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law.

Very truly yours,
